THE WINE CRITICS' FAVOURITE
95/100 POINTS
FOUR YEARS RUNNING

Natte Valleij Cinsault – South Africa

From winemaker Alex Milner, one of South Africa's most celebrated names, comes a pair of beautifully expressive reds made from old-vine Cinsault — a grape once forgotten, now at the heart of the Cape's wine revival.

Each vineyard tells its own story:

DARLING (1978 VINES)

graceful and perfumed, with notes of rose petal, red berry, and spice.

STELLENBOSCH (1972 VINES)

slightly deeper and more mineral, with wild strawberry, Turkish delight, and a stony freshness.

Light in body yet full of character, these wines show why Alex Milner's Cinsaults have been awarded 95+ points for four consecutive vintages by leading critics around the world.
